Winter Season Competition Round-up

FIRST DIVISION

Adelaide Juventus became the 1974 League Champions after trailing W.A. Hellas for most of the season by one point. In the last match of the Season however, W.A. Hellas could only manage a 1-1 draw against Beograd Woodville, and the 4-0 win of Adelaide Juventus over Campbelltown City resulted in W.A. Hellas losing top place and the Championship going to Adelaide Juventus. This is the twelfth time since 1953 that Adelaide Juventus have become S.A. Champions, a record that will take a long time to be broken by any other Club.

W.A. Hellas made amends for this slip by winning the Coca-Cola

Campbelltown City, newly promoted to the 1st Division in 1974, discovered that the competition in the 1st Division is much tougher than expected and would have been relegated to the 2nd Division after one season in the top division, if it was not for the amalgamation with Burnside Budapest. The new Club, Campbelltown Budapest, will have another chance to prove their strength in 1975.

The City State Award of $500 was won by W.A. Hellas with a total of 25 points closely followed by Cumberland United with 24 points.

SECOND DIVISION

Apart from a short spell earlier in the season, Elizabeth City ran out comfortable Champions of the 2nd Division by a 4-point margin over Port Adelaide who occupied second place for most of the season. Munno Para APAC was always in the top four, while Croatia, although starting off the season in a disastrous fashion, were able to work their way up to fourth position.

Modbury, newly promoted from 3rd Division in 1974, were able to keep off the bottom position. Birkalla Rovers, finishing last and facing relegation, were saved from this fate because of the amalgamation of Budapest and Campbelltown in the 1st Division.

The John Martin's Cup was won by Croatia, proving that their improvement in the latter part of the competition was not just a flash in the pan.

THIRD DIVISION

Don United just pipped Windsor Athletic to the post for the top position in this Division and gained promotion to the 2nd Division. Don United will find the competition in the 2nd Division much tougher than expected and could be in for a disappointment if nothing is done to considerably strengthen their team.

The vacancy created in the Federation competition was filled by the Board accepting S.A.I.T. to the 3rd Division.

The Rowley Cup went to Windsor Athletic, who won the final against Don United.

The Barker Cup (Reserves) and the Stan Upton Cup (Juniors) both went to W.R.E.I.

METROPOLITAN LEAGUE

Consisting of 12 teams this League played the first half of the Season in two groups and combined for the second half of the Season.

S.A.I.T. ran out comfortable champions with 38 points, 5 points ahead of Elizabeth W.H.O.S.

Recommendations for future League competitions are still under study, and therefore we will not see a great change in this department for the 1975 Season.

SCHOOLS AND COLTS

After one year of independent administration in which the Management of the South Australian Junior Soccer Association found that the going was not all that easy, especially not receiving the full co-operation from a few district organisations, they managed to organise the Australian U15 Youth Championships and did a tremendous job.

With the necessary co-operation from all departments, this Association will prove to be a great asset to soccer in South Australia.

Facts and figures of the '74 First Division Season

Compiled by HENRY KURCZAK

In one of the closest finishes ever, Juventus took out the 1974 First Division Premiership by the slender margin of two goals, finishing equal on 28 points with Hellas, who won last year's title by a clear margin of ten points. Polonia retained their place in the top four, moving up one rung into third position behind Juventus and Hellas. Thus the only new face in the top four was Cumberland, improving their position from fifth last year to fourth spot. The only other club to improve their ranking was Victoria, from eighth in 1973 to seventh, exchanging places with Azzurri, who went the other way. Beograd took the biggest slide down from third last season to fifth position. Lion and Budapest retained their 1973 places, finishing sixth and ninth respectively. Campbelltown, promoted from second Division, made just as rapid an exit as did Croatia the previous year, finding the competition in the First Division much too strong. The same six clubs qualified to play in the night series at the end of both the 1973 and 1974 seasons.

A total of 245 goals were scored in First Division matches this season, resulting in an average of 2.72 goals per match. This was a low total if compared to previous years (298 goals were scored in 1973, 296 in 1972, 304 in 1971, 340 in 1970 and 301 in 1969).

A total of 78 players shared in the scoring of the goals. Hellas had the longest list of goalscorers, with 11 players sharing their 38 goals. Azzurri and Lion each had only six players who netted goals. Only three own goals were recorded during the season. Polonia's young striker John Kosmina topped the goalscoring list with a total of 13 goals, followed by Joe Serafini of Juventus with 10. Cumberland's David Leane and Lion's Roger Kozuch were next with 9 goals each. Four players scored seven goals each and another four netted six each.

Fourteen different results were recorded in the 90 First Division matches. The most common results were: 1-0, repeated 16 times; 2-0, 15 times; 1-1 (12) and 2-1 (11). These were followed by 3-0 and 3-1, each repeated seven times, 4-1 (six times), 2-2 (four times), 0-0 (three times). 4-0, 5-0, 3-2, and 4-2 were each recorded twice, while only one match ended with a score of 5-2.

Of the 90 matches, 19 or 21.1% resulted in draws, 29 (32.2%) were decided by one goal, in 24 matches (26.7%) the margin was two goals, 14 (15.6%) of the matches were won by three goals. Only four matches (4.4%) were decided by margins of four or five goals. Thus in more than half of all the matches played (53.3%) not more than a single goal separated the participating clubs.

League Season Facts and Figures (cont.) . . .

Most goals, namely 21, were scored in round five (May 18) and this was also the only round in which all ten clubs scored goals. Round thirteen (July 13) produced a goal famine with only 10 scored in the five matches. Polonia recorded the most number of draws with six, followed by Victoria and Azzurri, each with five, whilst Juventus and Hellas with two each, had the least number of drawn matches during the year.

No club was capable of scoring in all 18 matches, but Juventus were the only club to score in all their nine home matches. Highest score and biggest winning margin was 5-0, this being recorded twice. Cumberland and Hellas were the victors on those occasions, defeating Azzurri and Campbelltown respectively. Most goals (seven) were scored in the Juventus-Budapest match with Juventus winning by five goals to two. Hellas with 38 and Juventus with 36 were the most prolific scorers, whilst at the other end of the scale Campbelltown with 13 and Azzurri with 17 averaged less than a goal per match. As far as defences are concerned, Campbelltown (41) and Budapest (39) had most goals kicked against them. Juventus with 11, Hellas (15) and Polonia (18) were the only three clubs to concede less than 20 goals for the season.

Juventus had the most impressive home record with eight wins and only a single loss, scoring 22 goals, while allowing only six. Hellas was next best with six wins, two draws and one loss, scoring 20 times and conceding only six goals in the process. Campbelltown had a woeful home record. The only club not to win at home, Campbelltown gained only two points from drawn matches and scored only six times, whilst allowing the opposition to net 20 times.

Away from home Polonia were the only club to lose only one of their nine matches, allowing the opponents only a total of five goals. Juventus also had only five goals kicked against them in away matches, but lost twice. Hellas (14), Polonia (13) and Juventus (12) collected most points away from home, Hellas with 18 and Cumberland with 17 scored most goals. Campbelltown were also the worst performer away from home, with three points and a meagre seven goals. They were followed by Lion, who accumulated only five points whilst scoring eight goals. Campbelltown (21) and Budapest (20) had the doubtful distinction of conceding most goals away from home.

Juventus had the longest sequence of victories, stringing together nine wins in a row. Juventus and Polonia shared the honour of the longest period without a loss, a total of ten matches. Juventus achieved it between rounds seven and sixteen (inclusive), while Polonia did it between rounds nine and eighteen, again inclusive.

MOST OUTSTANDING PLAYER, 1974

The West End Medal for Best and Fairest Player which had been running for six years has been replaced with the John Martin's Medal for the Most Outstanding Player of the Year.

Geoff Booth of Budapest ran out a clear winner with 24 votes, followed by John Perin (Juventus), 20 votes, Frank Lister (Juventus) and Terry Wetton (Azzurri) finished with 18 votes each, but Frank Lister took third place on a countback.

The count was held during the 1974 Federation Ball and created a lot of interest. The winner, apart from receiving a gold medal from Mr. Ian Hayward, Managing Director of John Martins, received a $500 prize in goods from John Martins.

Medal winners in previous years were:-

1966—Peter McKenzie

1967—Eugene Nowak

1968-Rab Jones

FEDERATION BALL, 1974

As in 1973, the Federation Ball was held at the St. Clair Youth Centre, Woodville.

The Federation Patron, the Premier of S.A., Hon. Don Dunstan was the guest of honour and Federation sponsors were well represented amongst the guests.

The evening was successful and an attendance of well over 1.000 people enjoyed themselves very much.

the otherwise successful event.

The highlights of the evening were the count for the John Martin's Medal for the most outstanding player of the year and the judging of Miss Soccer, 1975.

Miss Polonia, Miss Barbara Glambinski, was chosen as Miss Soccer and the Premier performed the crowning ceremony.

Miss Soccer was presented with prizes to the value of nearly $1,000 - amongst these were a string of genuine cultured Mikimoto pearls, donated by John Martins, a trip for two including accommodation and expenses donated by T.A.A. and the Bank of Adelaide and haircare vouchers by Feres Trabilsie.

Miss S.A. Quest judges gave their valuable assistance in the judging of Miss Soccer, for which the Federation was most grateful. The cost of the Ball to the Federation was quite considerable and committees of future ventures may have to look at this aspect of

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL TEAM

The Australian National Team played a trial match in Adelaide on Wednesday, February 6, 1974, versus Ferencearos (Hungary) in preparation for their World Cup matches.

Approximately 12,500 spectators saw the Socceroos go down by two goals to one. The general impression was that the defensive tactics spoilt any chance Australia had of winning this game.

Summary of the 1974 World Cup

Compiled by H. Kurczak

The 1974 World Cup Finals were played in West Germany between June 13 and July 7, with Australia qualifying for the first time ever. A breakdown of the various results and match details leading up to the final is given below.

FIRST ROUND

Group I - West Germany, East Germany, Chile, Australia

June 14, Berlin — West Germany v Chile 1-0

June 14, Hamburg — East Germany v Australia 2-0

June 18, Berlin — Chile v East Germany 1-1

June 18, Hamburg — West Germany v Australia 3-0

June 22, Berlin — Australia v Chile 0-0

June 22, Hamburg — East Germany v West Germany 1-0

Final Group I Placings:

|              | W. | D. | L. | Goals | Pts. |
|--------------|----|----|----|-------|------|
| East Germany | 2  | 1  | 0  | 4:1   | 5    |
| West Germany | 2  | 0  | 1  | 4:1   | 4    |
| Chile        | 0  | 2  | 1  | 1:2   | 2    |
| Australia    | 0  | 1  | 2  | 0:5   | 1    |

Comments: East Germany and West Germany qualified for the second round with Chile and Australia eliminated. The two favourites advanced to the next round as expected, but the big surprise was the fact that West Germany lost to the East Germans and finished runners-up. Only nine goals were scored in the six matches, the lowest of the four groups. No player scored more than once in all the matches.

Group II - Brazil, Yugoslavia, Scotland, Zaire.

June 13, Frankfurt — Brazil v Yugoslavia 0-0

June 14, Dortmund — Scotland v Zaire 2-0

June 18, Frankfurt — Scotland v Brazil 0-0

June 18, Gelsenkirchen — Yugoslavia v Zaire 9-0

June 22, Frankfurt — Scotland v Yugoslavia 1-1

Comments: Zaire were completely outclassed in this group, with the other three countries separated only on goal difference. Scotland was the unluckiest, being eliminated without losing a match. A total of sixteen goals were scored, but nine of these in one of the six matches. Bajevic scored a hat-trick, while Jordan of Scotland (with two), was the only other player to score more than one goal.

Comments: The surprises in this group were the disappointing form of Uruguay, one of the four seeded teams and Sweden's qualification for the second round. Sweden had been bracketed with Australia, Zaire and Haiti as the "last" four, when groups were drawn. Twelve goals were scored in the six matches, with Rep (Holland) with three, Neeskens (Holland) with two and Edstrom (Sweden) also with two, the only players to score more than once.

Group IV - Italy, Argentina, Poland, Haiti

June 15, Munich — Italy v Haiti 3-1

June 15, Stuttgart — Poland v Argentina 3-2

Comments: Poland proved outstanding in this group and was the only country to win its three round one matches out of all the sixteen finalists. Italy, one of the favourites to win the World Cup, were surprisingly eliminated. A total of twenty-six goals were scored in this group with Poland the most prolific scorers with twelve. The leading scorers were: Szarmach (Poland) 5, Lato (Poland) 4, Deyna (Poland) 2, Houseman (Argentina) 2, Yazalde (Argentina) 2, Sanon (Haiti) 2. Szarmach (Poland) was one of two players to score a hat-trick. (The other was Bajevic of Yugoslavia in Group II.)

Comments: Holland qualified for the final in a canter, winning all three matches and without having a single goal scored against them. Fourteen goals were scored in the six matches, eight of which were scored by the Dutch team. Cruyff (Holland) with three, Neeskens (Holland) with two and Rivelino (Brazil), also with two, were the only players to score more than once. East Germany, after winning Group I and defeating West Germany in the process, were the most disappointing country in this group, scoring only once in three matches.

Group "B" - Yugoslavia, Poland, West Germany, Sweden.

June 26, Dusseldorf — West Germany v Yugoslavia 2-0

June 26, Stuttgart — Poland v Sweden 1-0

1974 World Cup Summary (cont.) . . .

Comments: West Germany qualified for the final, but had to overcome some spirited opposition, firstly by Sweden and secondly in their match against Poland. Sixteen goals were scored in this group, with West Germany netting seven. Lato (Poland), Muller (West Germany) and Edstrom (Sweden) were the only players to score two goals each. One outstanding feat was performed by the Polish goalkeeper Tomaszewski—the saving of two penalty kicks, one against Sweden and the other against West Germany.

PLAY-OFF FOR THIRD PLACE

July 6, Munich — Poland v Brazil 1-0

WORLD CUP FINAL

July 7, Munich - West Germany v Holland 2-1

Leading Goalscorers at the end of the finals:

Lato (Poland) 7

Szarmach (Poland), Neeskens (Holland) 5 each

Rep (Holland), Edstrom (Sweden), Muller (West Germany) 4 each.
Breitner (West Germany), Deyna (Poland), Bajevic (Yugoslavia),
Cruyff (Holland), Houseman (Argentina), Rivelino (Brazil)
3 each.

Thus twelve players scored three goals or more. Nine players scored two goals each, while twenty-nine different players netted a goal each. Only three players scored through their own goal, namely Curran (Australia), Krol (Holland) and Perfumo (Argentina).

Some interesting statistical data from the World Cup Finals:

A total of 97 goals were scored in the 38 matches played, resulting in an average of 2.55 goals per match. Only one country was not defeated — Scotland — but only played three matches for one win and two draws. West Germany and Poland were the only teams to record six wins during the finals. Most goals were scored by Poland (16), followed by Holland (15), West Germany (13) and Yugoslavia (12). Australia and Zaire were the only two countries not to score any goals. Holland had the most impressive defensive record, allowing only three goals in their seven matches. In fact, before the final, Holland had conceded only one goal — an own goal against Bulgaria.

Of the last four Brazil had the least impressive record, only six goals in seven matches, with three wins, two draws and two losses. Brazil was held scoreless in four of their matches. West Germany, Holland and Poland, on the other hand, scored in all but one of their seven matches.

A total of 13 different results were obtained in the 38 matches. 1-0 and 2-0 were each repeated six times; 0-0, 1-1 and 2-1 each five times;

3-0 was recorded three times; while six results were recorded only once (3-1, 3-2, 4-2, 4-0, 7-0, 9-0). Of the 38 matches 10 were drawn, 12 won by a single goal, 8 by two goal margins, 5 by 3 goals, and only three matches were decided by a margin of four or more goals. This means that 57.8% of all matches were either drawn or decided by one goal.

A total of 264 players took the field during the 38 matches. Scotland used the least number of players, namely 13, followed by Uruguay with 14. Of the countries that qualified for the second round, Holland used 15 players and Poland restricted themselves to 16. Argentina called on a total of 20 players, only two short of their total contingent.

Of the countries that qualified for the second round Yugoslavia had the longest list of goalscorers (8 players shared in the 12 goals). West Germany had seven scorers, Holland six, Poland four and Brazil only three.

S.A. STATE TEAM

April 6, 1974 — Adelaide.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA v WESTERN AUSTRALIA (3-2)

Team: D. Stephens, B. Nyskohus, Yung (Reynolds), N. McGachey, F. Lister, Z. Matic, W. Birch, R. Russo (A. Zervas), R. White, J. Perin (J. Besir), T. Mulvaney, Reserve Goalkeeper (R. Romanowicz).

From the start S.A. went into attack and were one goal up (scored by R. White) in the 17th minute. It looked as if it was going to be a big win for S.A., but due to misunderstandings in the defence, W.A. managed to score two goals to one by half time. In the second half S.A. kept the pressure on, and scored two goals (W. Birch) to win the game.

May 15, 1974 — Adelaide.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA v ABERDEEN (SCOTLAND) (2-2)

Team: R. Romanowicz, B. Nyskohus, B. Reynolds, Z. Matic, F. Lister, J. Perin, D. Leane (J. Besir), W. Birch, H. Kolecki, J. Nyskohus, T. Mulvaney (R. Russo).

From the start the game was played at a terrific speed and approximately 8,000 spectators got their money's worth. S.A. took the lead in the 20th minute through a goal by D. Leane. Pirie of Aberdeen equalised 3 minutes later, but in the 75th minute, J. Nyskohus put S.A. in the lead again, only to see Pirie (Aberdeen) again equalise in the 83rd minute. This was a good result, although S.A. could have won the game had they taken more advantage of their opportunities.

May 29, 1974 — Adelaide.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA v CHELSEA (0-4)

Team: R. Romanowicz (R. Stephens), B. Nyskohus, B. Reynolds, Z. Matic, F. Lister, J. Perin, D. Leane, W. Birch, R. Russo, J. Nyskohus, H. Kolecki (N. McGachey).

Although S.A. lost this game, it was not as one sided as the score indicates. The score at half time was 1-0 for Chelsea, but could have been the other way around with a bit of luck for S.A. Chelsea produced their best soccer in the second half, but the S.A. team was not outclassed. The second goal was scored in the 65th minute and the others in the 70th minute and 80th minute of the match. Two of these were due to mistakes in the defence. A very entertaining game for the almost 12,000 spectators.
